PILES CURED WITHOUT THE KNIFE

There is no disease which causes more torture, wrecks more nervous systems or undermines more constitutions than the insidious affliction known as piles.

GERMAN PILE CURE is a method of treatment originated by a famous surgeon in the German army and the result of years of experience.

There is no cutting, no dangerous and torturing operations, but a treatment which alleviates the pain from the start and in a short time removing the cause, the disease disappears, leaving the patient strengthened constitutionally and full of vigorous energy.

This great remedy acts instantly, permanently curing bleeding, internal, ulcerated and protruding piles. It is entirely different from any and all other treatments and methods and medicines for the cure of this fearful disease. It is the only remedy which acts directly in a soothing manner and upon the swollen veins, removing the dead blood and creating a vigorous circulation.

It is home treatment, self-administered by the patient, causing no pain or detention from business, effecting a complete cure in from two to ten days.

This remedy is made from expensive ingredients and is not a cheap salve or ointment and is not on sale at Drug Stores.

This is the first time it has been offered to any one in the United States and can be obtained from no one except ourselves.

We will send the cure complete on receipt of $1.00 and guarantee a permanent and lasting cure in each and every case, no matter how long standing.

COUNTRY LIFE IN THIS SECTION

NEARLY 25 PER CENT. OF LAST YEAR'S WHEAT CROP STILL IN FARMERS' HANDS.

Maryland Rural Carrier Can't Stand the Pace—York County People Move With the Help of the Trolley.

There is considerable interest in this section in the March report of the Statistician of the Department of Agriculture, which shows the amount of wheat remaining in American farmers' hands on March 1 to have been about 164 000,000 bushels, or 24.5 per cent. of last year's crop, as compared with 28.2 per cent. of the crop of 1901 on hand March 1, 1902, and 24.5 per cent. of the crop of 1900 on hand on March 1, 1901.

The corn in farmers' hands is estimated at about 1,050,000,000 bushels, or 41.6 per cent. of last year's crop, against 29.2 per cent. of the crop of 1901 on hand on March 1, 1902, and 30.9 per cent. of the crop of 1900 on hand on March 1, 1901.

Of oats there are reported to be about 305 000,000 bushels, or 36.9 per cent. of last year's crop, still in farmers' hands, as compared with 30.6 per cent. of the crop of 1901 on hand on March 1, 1902, and 36.2 per cent. of the crop of 1900 on hand on March 1, 1901.

MR. ELI K. TRONE, of Hellam, York county, while preparing breakfast, found an extra large egg which, on opening, was found to be a double one, the inner one being provided with a complete shell, just as the outer one. Double eggs are frequent, but cases of the second egg being provided with a shell are very rare.

Harvey Zeigler, carrier on one of the rural delivery routes leading out of Hagerstown, has resigned after two days' trial. His route covers over 25 miles, independent of several side tracks into farmhouses, and Mr. Zeigler claims his horse cannot stand it to make the trip. Edward L. Burger, of Hagerstown, has been appointed temporarily to fill Mr. Zeigler's place.

An unique "flitting" took place last week over the York County Traction Company's lines. The household effects of Henry Messerly, of Dover, were loaded on the traction company's new freight car and accompanied by Mr. Messerly's family were conveyed to Emigsville, attracting much attention on the way. The moving was in charge of William Myers, the Dover baggagemaster.

A Lettersburg woman, Mrs. Clayton Zeigler, is said to have given a novel but kindly burial to a favorite old family horse. She had its remains laid in a deep grave, a good, warm blanket being first placed in it. Another good blanket was drawn over him and then the earth thrown over his body.

Six carloads of cattle were shipped to Baltimore from Hanover over the W. M. Railroad. L. P. Brockley shipped 3 loads, William Worley 2 loads, and Sell & Witmer 1 load.

In "The Great Northwest."

Ray Stannard Baker, whose articles on "The Great Northwest" are ranked by The Century among the more notable and valuable of the year's offerings, found the nine thousand miles which he and Mr. E. L. Blumenschein traveled gathering materials for their pictures, written and drawn, full of adventure. "We visited all the important cities in the five Northwestern States," Mr. Baker says. "We took part in the land rush at the opening of the Fort Hole Indian Reservation in Idaho in June; we went into the lumber camps in Washington, down in the mines of Montana, out with the salmon-fishing fleet at the mouth of the Columbia River; we outfitted and traveled with wagons or on horseback across part of Idaho, through the forest reserve of Wyoming, and across Yellowstone Park; and we visited the old city of Victoria in British Columbia. In all of the different cities we were afforded every possible assistance in our work, given introductions to the clubs, invited to visit every seat of enterprise—to the limit of our strength. The people everywhere seemed deeply interested in having the country properly presented in The Century."

— It took Fred Noble three weeks to get Anaconda used to an open bridle.

SORE HANDS

Itching, Burning Palms, Painful Finger Ends,

With Brittle, Shapeless, Discolored Nails,

As Well as Roughness and Redness,

ONE NIGHT TREATMENT

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of Cuticura Soap. Dry and anoint freely with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure and purest of emollients. Wear, during the night, old, loose kid gloves, or bandage lightly in old, soft cotton or linen. For red, rough and chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with brittle, shapeless nails and painful finger ends, this treatment is simply wonderful, frequently curing in a single application. In no other way have Cuticura Soap and Ointment demonstrated their astonishing curative properties more effectually than in the treatment of the hands, especially when tortured with itching, burning and scaly eczema.

Complete local and constitutional treatment for every humour of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, may now be had for one dollar. Bathe freely with hot water and Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the surface of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Cuticura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and, lastly, take the Cuticura Resolvent Pills, to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep in the severest forms of eczema and other itching, burning and scaly humours, and points to a speedy, permanent and economical cure of torturing, disfiguring humours from infancy to age, when all other remedies and the best physicians fail.

HISTORICAL SOCIETIES ELSEWHERE

WHAT BUCKS AND BERKS COUNTIES HAVE DONE.

Museum of Bucks' Contains a Conestoga Wagon, Washington's Gridiron and Other Valuable Relics.

A good many years ago the people of Bucks county, Pennsylvania, felt the need of a county historical society. The matter was talked over by a few of the leading citizens of Doylestown, the county-seat, and a public meeting was called to discuss the subject more fully. The meeting was largely attended, the people manifesting much interest in the cause from the start. The result was the organization of a society which ranks among the best in the State, and which has been the means of doing a vast amount of good.

In these delightful days of comfort and convenience the sons and daughters of Bucks can look back with interest and pleasure to the early days of the pioneers who blazed the way for succeeding generations. The museum of the historical society of the county, housed in the Court House, helps the youth of the present day to realize and understand the toils and privations of the early settlers in that region. This collection is one of rare value. In great part it has been collected, described, arranged and catalogued by Henry C. Mercer, curator of the University of Pennsylvania's Museum of American and Prehistoric Archæology.

This great aggregation of wonderful and interesting things is annually visited by thousands of people from all parts of the world and none go away disappointed. The largest single object in the collection is the body of a Conestoga wagon, a type of vehicle once quite common in Adams county, which meets the eye on entering the room.

Some people yet living recall the time when long trains of these wagons daily passed through Gettysburg on their way to and from Baltimore and Pittsburg, adding much to the business of the town. As late as 1860 a few of those quaint outfits occasionally made their appearance on our roads. If there is a single specimen of the olden time Conestoga wagon in existence in the county it should quickly be secured and embalmed for use of Adams county's historical museum, when in the fullness of time one is formed.

One of the most attractive sections of Bucks county's collection is the one devoted to colonial kitchen utensils. The specimens in this department are quite numerous. A waffle-iron is decorated with figures of a drummer boy and fifer in uniform, with bearskin shako. Pie plates, bowls, jugs and cups are of dark red or dark brown glaze, from an ancient Colonial pottery. Some of these are decorated with bands of color or figures.

The glaze was toned into green, orange, brown and yellow by the willing hands of our old Pennsylvania potters, some of whom resided in Adams county, which was once noted for the excellence and variety of the work turned out by its potteries. Some bear quaint mottoes in German and others in English. Not a few of them are inscribed with highly practical maxims similar to those contained in Poor Richard's Almanac. These, being constantly before the eyes of the young, could not fail to impress their minds with ideas of thrift so essential to success in the early settlements.

Washington's gridiron is one of the curiosities of the Bucks collection. Another is a Colonial door lock, mortised in oaken block, and used in 1770 at Lafayette's headquarters at Pleasant Valley. The gridiron referred to above was used by General Washington's family for two seasons during the prevalence of the yellow fever in Philadelphia and was formerly the property of Colonel Isaac Franks, aide-de-camp of Washington.

A unique department of the collection represents the artistic work of the Pennsylvania Germans in stove plates made over a century and a half ago. These plates are of cast iron, two feet square, elaborately decorated with scenes from Bible history, with mottoes, hearts, tulips and incidents of a highly interesting character. These are but a few of the thousands of rare and valuable relics to be seen in the grand collection of the Bucks County Historical Society.

What has Adams done in that direction? We pause for a reply. We do know, however, that many thousands of tons of things pertaining to the farms and the households of the olden time have been hunted up and carried away by the junk dealers within a few years. While Adams county people have slumbered and slept, the agents of historical and antiquarian societies of other localities have been quietly gathering up in our very midst innumerable treasures to enrich the collections represented by them—treasures we should have retained for the embellishment of an Adams county collection, which will undoubtedly become a fact some time.

Berks county has a historical society of which it is justly proud. In the absence of definite data we can only say in a general way that it has done and is doing much excellent work in the way of gathering up the scattered threads of its history, and has caused them to be woven into a very complete and attractive story. Their historian is Mr. Morton L. Montgomery, a gentleman in every way qualified for the task.

"The History of Berks County," by Mr. Montgomery, was published in 1885, in a royal octavo volume of 1200 pages. Soon after its publication many teachers of the public schools suggested to him the propriety of abridging the original work in a manner to make it suitable for use as a text book in the public schools of the county. The result was a handsome duodecimo volume of 302 pages, well printed, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, and costing probably about $1 50.

April 1, 1903. HISTORICUS.

— John R. Lashley, proprietor of the Washington House, Waynesboro, has sold his speedy mare, "Phroso," (2.21½), to a millionaire broker of Baltimore, for the sum of $1000. In selling "Phroso" Mr. Lashley has disposed of probably the speediest horse ever owned in Waynesboro. "Phroso" was trained by D. H. Kelty and driven by him in races last year. She is a mare of great speed, of splendid courage and remarkably handsome and it is believed she will be able to reduce her record to 2:15 this year if handled.

FOUND MASON AND DIXON MARKERS

CIVIL ENGINEER MARTIN DISCOVERS THEM IN UNUSUAL PLACES.

Has Found It Necessary to Place Wire Cages Around the Crown Stone Near Pen-Mar.

E. R. Martin, a civil engineer of Bridgeville, Del., who is engaged in completing the re-survey of Mason and Dixon's line and resetting the marking stones, is in Waynesboro, and will have his headquarters there for several days while he completes his work in that vicinity.

He is in charge of the survey authorized by the Legislatures of this State and Maryland. Martin has been engaged in the work for a year and a half, and has only about seven miles to go over.

The milestones are plain; with the letter "P" on one side and "M" on the other. Every five miles a crown stone is placed. This has the coat-of-arms of William Penn on one side and that of Lord Baltimore on the other.

A somewhat unusual duty falling to Mr. Martin will be placing of a wire cage around and over the stone an eighth of a mile from Pen-Mar Station. Excursionists and summer visitors to the mountain have developed a propensity for chipping off pieces of the stone, and the cage will be provided to prevent this. There is a cage over the crown stone near Highfield.

Mr. Martin resets all the old stones and makes fast the new ones in concrete. For each stone he uses a barrel of cement and about a carload of broken stone. The average expense of the work is $60 a mile.

That Mason and Dixon did not set up stones farther west than the 1324 mile is attributed in part to the fact that the stones were very heavy and were transported with difficulty. A number of marking and crown stones were delivered for them at McCoy's ferry on the Potomac river, near Big Pool, and from that place all were not taken, except by people of the vicinity, who used them for door sills or other purposes.

Mr. Martin has found a number of these stones. Two were discovered in Baltimore. One was taken there to be erected in Druid Hill Park, but Mayor Latrobe refused to allow it to be put up. The Pennsylvania Historical Society now has this stone, having furnished a replica of it for the State line. Another old stone was found near Clearspring, two were taken from the Parkhead Church, nine miles east of Hancock, where they were doing service as door sills; some were found on the property of Justice of the Peace Thomas Bell Johnston, near Clearspring, and another on a street corner in Clearspring.

All the stones have been accounted for except one, No. 127, near Hancock. Mr. Martin dug up the ground in a radius of 20 feet from where it should have been and found about a hundred spalls from the stone. He thinks it was broken by accident.

SPARKS AND CINDERS.

 Gen. J. M. Hood, president of the United Railways and Electric Company of Baltimore, and formerly president of the Western Maryland Railroad, has been presented with a beautiful silver coffee service by the employes of the Western Maryland Railroad.

 The Western Maryland painters at the Hanover repair shops are busy painting and renumbering the Western Maryland passenger coaches, painting them a rich olive color so as to correspond with the Wabash system, of which the Western Maryland is a part.

 When you are traveling in a railroad car or are in a railroad station waiting for a train, and feel like spitting on the floor of the car or the station, remember the Legislature has passed a bill fixing a penalty of $5 for spitting on the floor or other place of car or station.

 The Reading Company will shortly receive a number of new passenger coaches from Wilmington. The new equipment is intended for all the lines.

 Rights of way have been secured by the Star Traction Company for its line, commencing at Mechanicsburg and passing through Kollertown, Shepherdstown, Bowmansdale, Seddontown, Mt. Pleasant, Dillsburg and Wellsville, and connecting with the line of the York Traction Company.

 The railroad station at New Oxford, destroyed by fire a few months ago, will be rebuilt this spring. The plans have been prepared and provide for a structure of the same style of architecture as the old one though it will be built of Hummelstown brown stone instead of gray stone. It will cost about $5,000.

 Reports that the control of the New York Central will pass to the Pennsylvania-Rockefeller-Morgan interests cause much comment in Wall street.

HORSES AND HORSEMEN.

— James X. Gillen, of Gallitzin, Pa., a well-known Cambria county horseman, last week purchased Diamond Wilkes, a promising 4-year-old that was a winner in several fast brushes in the last snow, for a fancy price.

— The Virginia Horse Show Association have a big year of exhibitions this season, as the prize list in the various towns has been greatly increased in value. Twelve towns of the State are included in the organization, and each one will hold a show.

Tired Out

"I was very poorly and could hardly get about the house. I was tired out all the time. Then I tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it only took two bottles to make me feel perfectly well."—Mrs. N. S. Swiney, Princeton, Mo.

Tired when you go to bed, tired when you get up, tired all the time. Why? Your blood is impure, that's the reason. You are living on the border line of nerve exhaustion. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla and be quickly cured. $1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Ask your doctor what he thinks of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. He knows all about this grand old family medicine. Follow his advice and we will be satisfied.

AMONG THE MAGAZINES.

Special Articles in the Forum, Cosmopolitan, Pearson's and The Century.

The leading article in the April-June Forum is a review of "American Politics" by Henry Litchfield West, who deals particularly with the legislation of the last Congress, the fight on the Statehood Bill, the suggested nominations for the next Presidency, and the appointment of colored men to Federal offices. A. Maurice Low discusses the most important "Foreign Affairs" of the quarter, with special reference to the revival of the Eastern Question and to the internal and external politics of Germany. Alexander D. Noyes treats of the events and tendencies of the same period in the world of "Finance." Recent progress in "Applied Science," especially in engineering, is described by Henry Harrison Suplee. Literature is represented by a review of Sidney Lee's "Life of Queen Victoria," contributed by Prof. W. P. Trent. Under the heading of "Music," Joseph Sohn sets forth the "Lessons of the Operatic Season." A paper on "The Educational Outlook" is contributed by Ossian H. Lang. Dr. J. M. Rice's "Educational Research" for the current quarter takes the form of a discussion, based on his investigations in public schools, of the respective importance of talent and training in teaching. The special articles concluding the present number are "The Present Estimate of the Value of Human Life," by Prof. Rudolf Eucken, of Jena, "The Scope of a Permanent Tariff Commission," by Albert H. Washburn, and "A Rambling Discourse on Submarine Navigation," by Comdr. F. M. Barber, U. S. N., retired.

The Cosmopolitan.

The April Cosmopolitan is a carefully balanced magazine. It appeals to the individual tastes of the individual. There are 17 stories and articles—101 pictures. Chief place is given to a striking article on "The Americanization of the Canadian Northwest," written by William R. Stewart. A personal sketch of Bjornsterne Bjornson, the prophet-poet of Norway, is most entertainingly written, and is illustrated with a number of beautiful photographs of the poet's home. "To Love or To Be Loved," is a philosophical essay, by Lavinia Hart, in the course of which she shows that to love means increase of physical beauty—an end which may also be gained by physical exercise, as is shown in the same number by Bernarr MacFadden, in an article entitled "Health Made and Preserved by Daily Exercise." Dr. Geo. F. Shears writes on "Medicine," as part of the series, "Making a Choice of a Profession." "Famous Cures and Humbugs of Europe," is by the late Julian Ralph, "Romances of the World's Great Mines" (Calumet and Hecla), by S. E. Moffett. There are also two sketches—one on the great financier, Jacob H. Schiff, and the other on the sugar-king, H. O. Havemeyer. Field marshal, Viscount Wolseley, K. P., H. G. Wells, Henry Seton Merriam, Seumas MacManus, and several other well-known writers contribute to this number of the Cosmopolitan, which is particularly remarkable for the variety of its fiction.

Pearson's Magazine.

The cover design of the April Pearson's is a striking sketch by J. N. Marchand of Sir Henry Morgan, Buccaneer—the chief character of a new serial by Cyrus Townsend Brady which begins in this number. Dr. Brady paints with a master's hand the fascinating character of this notorious buccaneer, swayed by the strongest and fiercest of human passions, and the picture he draws of the manners and customs of those times is so vivid, the action of his story so swift, and the situations so thrilling that the reader finds this first instalment all too short and looks forward eagerly to the continuation. This is unquestionably destined to be one of the leading novels of the year. A. V. continues his startling explanations of hitherto unfathomed political secrets, by unveiling the real motive behind the remarkable peace rescript of the Czar which so astonished the world a few years ago.

This month also witnesses the last of the persecutions of the beautiful Pearl Maiden, for she and Marcus escape at last from Rome and are married quietly at Alexandria, "living happily ever after."

The Century.

Ray Stannard Baker follows up his general view of the Great Northwest in the March Century with detailed description in the April number of "Butte City, greatest of copper camps." "Few American towns," he says, "arouse a keener interest in the stranger at first glimpse than Butte City"; and most readers are likely to be surprised, if not thrilled, by the figures proving Butte City's claim to its high rank among the country's greatest wealth producers. In 1900 began the taking of the country's first census. Taking the census of these United States even then was no easy task. To-day, in spite of all the help of modern mechanical invention, to secure the necessary decennial snap shot of the nation is a herculean undertaking. "The Evolution of American Census-Taking" is discussed in the April Century by no less an authority than the director of the census himself, the Honorable W. R. Merriam. In the same issue Hermann Klein, for thirty years a prominent musical critic in London, gives personal recollections of Verdi, Wagner, Gounod, Liszt and Tschaikowsky. There is another of "The Great Business Combinations of To-day" series, J. D. Kelley, Commander United States Navy, telling the story of "The So-Called Steamship Trust." The April number brings the last of Justin H. Smith's important historical articles on "The Prologue of the American Revolution," and another instalment of Lillie Hamilton French's "My Old Maid's Corner."

— Attorney-General Hampton L. Carson addressed 1000 persons in the High School auditorium at York last Wednesday evening in the interest of the York Historical Society. He spoke of the session of the Continental Congress in York, and appealed for encouragement for historical societies. A reception was given the Attorney General by the members of the Bar at the Layfayette Club.

— Just 100 horses have been named for the Saratoga Handicap.

— The graduating class of the York High School, about fifty in number, will wear caps and gowns at the commencement exercises.

THOUGHTS AND THINGS.

—GOLDSMITH.

Another landmark of ye olden times has passed away at the corner of Baltimore and High streets, an old residence that had seen its day and was ready to give away to the new and modern, yet as an old house it had a history that went back to the beginning of things in this borough. As near as we can guess the bricks and timbers that came out of the house were placed there about one hundred years ago.

***

The title papers for what has been known for more than a generation as the Krauth property go back to the Penns. It was a part of a tract in the Manor of Mask which the Penns sold James Gettys April 17, 1767.

***

James Gettys numbered it Lot No. 29 when he plotted the town, giving it a frontage of sixty feet on Baltimore street and one hundred and forty-two on High street and for the small sum of three pounds and fifteen shillings parted with it Jan. 11, 1798 to William McKinley. Gettys took good care to tack on the property an annual quit rent, such a one as he saddled on every lot in the town, so that even to this date one of the first things children learn to associate with the founder of the town is a quit rent. When it is recalled that President William McKinley's ancestors came from York county, it ought to be a safe guess that the William McKinley who owned this lot was of the same family, for at the time he owned it, it was part of York county.

***

William McKinley kept the lot but a short time, selling it December 31, 1798, to John Braden for forty-five pounds and Jan. 12, 1802, the latter sold it to Wm. Kuhns for one hundred pounds. It may be possible that some small building may have been put on the lot to account for the difference in price, but it is supposed that the residence recently pulled down was erected by Wm. Kuhns, for he received seven hundred and seventy-five pounds from the next purchaser April 24, 1810.

***

The next owner was one of the greatest scholars Gettysburg has ever known and a native of the county. Rev. David McConaughy, better known as Parson McConaughy, was a grandson of one of the first settlers in the region of York county, known as Tyrone, now part of Butler township. Rev. David McConaughy graduated from Dickinson College and was first honor man in a class to which Roger B. Taney, afterwards Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and Justice Kennedy, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, belonged. He was called as pastor of the Great Conowago and Upper Marsh Creek Churches in 1799 and installed in 1800. It was during his pastorate the Upper Marsh Creek Church was abandoned and a new church built in Gettysburg. Parson McConaughy continued to reside here and act as pastor of the church until 1832, when he resigned to take the presidency of Washington College, which position he filled until 1849.

***

Though living in Washington, Pennsylvania, after 1832, Parson McConaughy continued to hold on to the property, being occupied by a leading physician of the town and relative, Dr. David Gilbert and family, and April 17, 1848, Dr. Gilbert became the owner of the property but held it but a short time, conveying it April 28, 1848, to Rev. Charles P. Krauth, D. D., and again the property became the home of a brilliant scholar.

***

Dr. Charles Philip Krauth had in 1833 become the first President of Pennsylvania College, and it was his scholarly attainments that did much to make a success of the young institution. In the fall of 1850 he resigned the presidency of the college to devote himself wholly to the professorship in Seminary, which he had filled along with his duties at college. He removed then to the property he had bought two years before and continued to occupy it and fill the professorship in seminary until his death in 1876

***

Dr. Krauth's family occupied residence almost twenty years after his death and for eight years succeeding 1877, the small building north of the house was used as a post office while John M. Krauth, Esq., was postmaster. In 1895 J. A. Kitzmiller, as trustee to sell the real estate of Dr. C. P. Krauth, deceased, sold the property to Wm. McSherry and Geo. E. Stock, and the latter in 1899 conveyed his interest to Wm. McSherry.

Mr. McSherry will erect a handsome residence on the lot, the plans of which we understand are not fully completed.

Gettysburg, Pa., Wednesday, Apr. 1, 1903

THIS is the time for flitting.

The birds have flitted from the South to the North in search of future prospects.

EVERYBODY, his brother and the editor are on the flit with their household goods.

THERE are others on the move with their political goods and for various and divers other reasons.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is about to start or has started on his western trip. He can't help flitting now and incidentally to help dedicate the St. Louis exposition grounds April 30.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN is going to flit from the West to the East. He has been this way once, is coming again and this time he will visit Gettysburg.

JUDGE SWOPE a week or two ago flitted over to Fulton county, to hold court, of course.

HON. GEO. J. BENNER flitted over to Fulton county about the same time, just to attend court of course.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says he would ask no greater monument than the Panama Canal. That is for the purpose of a second term, of which he will necessarily be his own advance agent on his trip to the West. His flitting looks like spectacular politics, even if he has to have a vacation and go hunting. Uncle Matt goes to Florida for tarpon.

THEY say that William Jennings Bryan has no intention of either using the rod or gun on his trip. They do also say that he aspires to be Chairman next year of the Democratic National Committee and this would look as though he was possessed of the laudable ambition to do for another what he had failed to do for himself.

OF course Judge Swope held court while he was in Fulton county, but that would not necessarily prevent having an eye open for any possible accident to a second term, either from home or Fulton sources. A six hours court covering two days would give plenty of opportunity for the eye open part.

THERE is something so fittingly timely about the visit of Hon. Geo. J. Benner to little Fulton. Of course he was there to take part in a case and be there at a time when Judge Swope was there. There might be many other incidents that we know not of to which attention might have been given and they might be numerically described by other terms than two.

ADMIRAL DEWEY is talking again, but then he is only saying what everybody is thinking about the recent winter naval maneuvres in the West Indies. It only shows that the Admiral is again right. He says: "It was an object lesson to the Kaiser more than to any other person. Think of it, fifty-four warships, including colliers and all. Germany could not possibly get a fleet over here that could fight such an aggregation of warships as that."

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN TO SPEAK HERE.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN has written a letter to E. A. Weaver, Esq., Secretary of the Royal Arcanum, saying that he can come to Gettysburg to lecture on Saturday evening, April 11. The local council of the Royal Arcanum had extended an invitation to Mr. Bryan when he was in York recently. At that time he was unable to arrange a date, but replied that he would send word when it would suit. The present letter is the result. Mr. Bryan has been telegraphed to come on the date indicated by him.

Democrats and all citizens should turn out to hear the noted Nebraskan. He ranks among the best orators of the day. He will ever be remembered as the orator who, in 1896, captured the Democratic National Convention with his eloquence and was made the standard bearer of the Democratic Party for President. Twice nominated for President he made gallant and heroic fights in defense of the principles he believed in against the moneyed power of the land. Through these campaigns he went electrifying audience after audience with his oratory. Twice he showed the greatness of his manhood by the way he met defeat. For these reasons alone thousands and hundreds of thousands of people have and do delight to do honor to the man. They flock to hear him wherever he speaks. The opportunity to hear him is one that every one should avail themselves of. It will be found more than worth while as has been the verdict everywhere he has gone.

COMMISSION PLANS WORK ON FIELD

Bids Advertised For Twelve Thousand Feet of Fencing—Another Avenue May be Built.

After several months spent at his home at Canandaigua, N. Y., Colonel Richardson returned this week to the Battlefield Commissioners' office. Major Robbins is expected to arrive from his home at Statesville, N. C., today. Colonel Nicholson, the Chairman of the Commission, has been at his desk frequently in recent weeks. Active plans for the summer will be taken up by the Commissioners shortly and it is understood that among other things bids for a new avenue will be advertised.

In this issue of the COMPILER appears the advertisement of the Commission for 12,000 feet of iron fencing. This is to be of galvanized iron pipe with iron posts and will be built along both sides of Reynolds avenue for over a mile.

By request of the Commission, an officer will shortly be detailed from the Forestry bureau of the Agricultural Department at Washington to view and suggest the best way to restore the field. The idea is to plant trees which when grown will make the field appear just as it did at the time of the battle.

Several gangs of men are now at work completing the sodding, and gutter-making which was interrupted when winter set in.

TWO TAVERNS

Growing Grain Looks First Class—Why Not A Longer School Term?

TWO TAVERNS, Mar. 30. Mr. John E. Orndorff who is confined to his bed with LaGrippe is improving.

Mrs. Henry Patterson also is improving from her illness.

Levi Wilson is not improving as rapidly as our other sick.

Edwin Appler will leave for Lohrville Iowa March 30, where he intends to work on a farm.

Well the public sales are about over prices were good and everything and everybody seems to be prospering.

The growing grain never looked better at this season, prospects are for a big crop of straw at least.

Our correspondent J. A. Appler to the Agriculture Department at Washington reports a 125 per cent. of a normal growth and vitality of both wheat and rye, for March 30.

Two Taverns school taught by Miss Annie Schwartz closed March 25. Six of the pupils received awards for attending every day of the term: Emory Schwartz, Clare Reudisill, Clara, Elsie, Guy and Evan Appler. In the evening the school gave an entertainment. The school-room was crowded to its utmost capacity and the exercises consisted of recitations songs and dialogues. Sorry the collection was not larger which was taken towards purchasing a library for the school. Hope the public who attend these free entertainments will do better next time. Many of the parents of the pupils of the school are sorry it closes so soon. Why not one more month? There is money enough in the treasury to have two more months. Why is it needful to keep from five to seven hundred dollars lying dead in bank and only 1½ mills tax?

Sales and school over now—flittings are on the go. A PATRON

Mr. Wyndham, the Irish Secretary, has introduced the government's long anticipated Irish land bill in the British House of Commons. It proposes a free grant of $60,000,000 for the purposes of the bill.

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Accept no substitute for Hood's.

"I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. I.

THE TRIAL LIST OF APRIL COURT

IT CONTAINS FIVE OLD CASES AND FOUR NEW ONES.

The Case of D. B. Alleman Against the County for Advertising Bill Will Come up.

The April Court trial list of civil cases is a short one, containing but five old cases and four new ones, and the indications are that it will be quickly disposed of, perhaps two, not likely over three being tried.

The following are the old cases:

John L. Bosserman, trustee, vs. John Wolf, an action in ejectment for the title to a farm in Reading township, plaintiff claiming an equity therein of $3,000. J. L. Butt and S. S. Neely, Esqs., represent plaintiff and C. S. Duncan, Esq., the defendant.

D. F. Cullison, vs. J. Jeremiah Plank, is an action in assumpsit and is an appeal from a Justice, in whose transcript the cause of action is set out, that plaintiff claims the defendant on two or more occasions promised if he would accomplish a certain matter for him he would give him the best horse or its value, $90. The defendant denies the alleged contract. E. A. Weaver, Esq., represents plaintiff; W. C. Sheely, Esq., represents the defendant.

Heirs of David B. Russell, dec'd, vs. Lester L. Davis, is an action of ejectment and instituted to quiet the title to 400 acres of land in Hamiltonban township. The defendant is in possession and instituted the proceeding resulting in the issue for trial so as to clear up some alleged cloud on his title. Wm. McSherry, Esq. and Eugene L. Rowe, Esq., of Emmitsburg, represent plaintiffs and defendant is represented by McPherson & McPherson.

John L. Reilly, vs. John W. Eline, is an action in assumpsit for an alleged balance of $50 for mason work and laying brick in erection of the new public school building in Littlestown. Defendant alleges that plaintiff has been fully paid. Wm. & Wm. Arch. McClean represent defendant.

The last old case is that of Mary E. Fidler, claimant, vs. D. M. Osborne & Co. The defendant held a note signed by Jacob H. Fidler, agent. Upon execution issued thereon, Mary E. Fidler, wife of Jacob H. Fidler, claimed certain personal property and an issue was framed to try the same. Appearances would indicate that the question at issue will be whether the husband signing as agent bound the wife. Chas. S. Duncan, Esq., represents plaintiff and J. L. Butt, Esq., the defendant.

The first of the four new cases is that of Adams County Independent, D. B. Alleman proprietor and publisher, vs. The County of Adams, and is an action in assumpsit to recover $361.75 for the publication of the election proclamation of 1901 and 1902. Plaintiff alleges in his statement that he published the proclamation of 1900 by the authority of Sheriff Morrison and that in pursuance of the instruction of publishing the one in 1900 and without further notice countermanding it he published the proclamation in 1901 and 1902 and that the instructions covered the entire period of the Sheriff's term and was according to rule followed in previous terms. The County Commissioners in their affidavit of defense deny liability, asserting there was no rule as alleged and that plaintiff was notified not to print any further proclamations after 1900. Geo. J. Benner, Esq., represents plaintiff and S. S. Neely and Wm. P. Quimby, Esqs., defendant.

Cornelius Beecher, vs. John T. Weikert, is an action of trespass for $500 damages for injuries received by an alleged assault and battery upon plaintiff by defendant Sept. 2, 1902, of which defendant says he is not guilty. J. L. Williams and W. C. Sheely, Esqs., represent plaintiff and S. S. Neely and J. L. Butt, Esqs., defendant.

Elmer W. Moore, Receiver of the Iron City Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., vs. Benjamin D. Hostetter, is an action of assumpsit for assessments paid on two policies of insurance issued to defendant, amount sought to be recovered being about $300. Defendant alleges that one policy sued on was cancelled and the other one void. W. C. Sheely and John D. Keith, Esqs., represent plaintiff and Wm. and Wm. Arch. McClean, defendant.

Amelia Group, vs. Martha E. Group and Daniel Miller, is an action of ejectment for the title to a tract of land in Huntington township, containing eighty-three perches. E. A. Weaver, Esq., represents plaintiff and Chas. S. Duncan, Esq., the defendants.

Her Reason.

Dr. Porter had responded to a note left at his door by a farmer asking him to go as soon as possible to see his little boy, who had "a very bad cold."

The doctor took one look at the child and turned to the mother.

"Don't you know your boy is coming down with measles?" he asked severely.

"Yes, doctor, I knew he was," said the woman.

"Then what in the world did you mean by writing me he had 'a very bad cold?'" asked the doctor.

The woman hesitated for a moment; then, looking at her husband, she said, with sullen frankness, "Neither him nor me knew how to spell measles."

FRUIT TREES UNHURT BY COLD SNAP

BUT THERE WILL ONLY BE A HALF CROP OF PEACHES THIS YEAR.

Fruit Raisers However Believe That the Cold Spell of Some Time Ago Damaged Many Buds in Adams County.

Not for many years has Spring burst upon us so suddenly, so early and so effusively as this year. The warm showers and sunshine of last week worked wonders with nature and the sleet that nearly turned to snow on Monday morning came near being the undoing of many a bursting bud.

Reports differ as to the effect on the fruit trees. Apples were untouched and Jacob Sheely, of Cashtown, declares that the crop will be a large one. Concerning the peach outlook, reports differ. Mr. Chas. L. Longsdorf, of Flora Dale, says that reports he has received are rather discouraging. The damage was not caused by the cold snap of this week, but by the freezing the buds received several weeks ago. Only a half crop of peaches can be expected in this county. Small fruits and berries have not been touched and the outlook is good.

Hens are Making Records.

Eggs are produced at a fearful and wonderful rate at present. Last week Mervin Robert, manager of the Hanover Produce Company's Gettysburg branch, bought and shipped 2 389 dozen of eggs From one customer alone he received 200 dozen. This was from Harry A. Eckert, of Straban township, who sold Mr. Robert, last week, 200 dozen, laid by 400 hens in one week's time.

Young Plants

Every farmer knows that some plants grow better than others. Soil may be the same and seed may seem the same but some plants are weak and others strong.

And that's the way with children. They are like young plants. Same food, same home, same care but some grow big and strong while others stay small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.

A SWEET BREATH is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S. Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years—tried all kinds of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored in weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like. Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. L. M. Buehler.

DUE NOTICE IS SERVED.—Due notice is hereby served on the public generally that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the only salve on the market that is made from the pure, unadulterated witch hazel. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has cured thousands of cases of piles that would not yield to any other treatment, and this fact has brought out many worthless counterfeits. Those persons who get the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are never disappointed, because it cures.

GOOD FOR CHILDREN.—The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of Cough, Croup, and LaGrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.

HAVE YOU EATEN "It"? There are so many "ready to eat" foods on the market now that one hardly knows how to distinguish between them. "It" should not be classed with the others. There is no other that compares with "It", as one trial will convince you. "It" is more healthful, strengthening and tastes better. Made by a new process and ready to eat by adding milk. {SEAL} GIVEN under my hand at Gettysburg, on the 23rd day of Mar., in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.—A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in a awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at J. H. Huber drug store.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP CURED BY ONE BOTTLE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.—"When I had an attack of grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a teaspoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by J. H. Huber.

Playing marbles on the bank of a flooded creek at Wilkesbarre, Frank Hefferan, aged 12 slipped and was drowned.

DANGER OF COLDS AND GRIP.—The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. H. Huber.

Harry, the 7-year old son of Robert Russell, of Bellefonte, while fishing along Spring Creek, fell into the water and was drowned.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure. Send for circulars, free.

A GREAT SENSATION.—There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind. when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of Consumption, pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by J. H. Huber Druggist. Gettysburg, Pa., Wednesday, Apr. 1, 1903

ROUND ABOUT TOWN.

Gettye Lodge of Odd Fellows last night initiated nine into the order.

Eighty cadets of the graduating class of the United States Military Academy at West Point may visit Gettysburg in June.

The gross proceeds of the sale held by the ladies of the Reformed Church last week was $131.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Sweeney, on Baltimore street, Saturday next at 2 p. m.

The Y. W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Miss Rose Pitzer, Chambersburg street, Thursday evening at 6.30 o'clock.

All members of the Modern Woodmen of America are requested to attend on Wednesday, April 1st, at 7 30 p. m; business of importance.

The Mite Society of St. James Lutheran Church will hold a food sale in the Smith building, on York street, Saturday, April 4th. Home-made bread a specialty.

"Nevada, or The Lost Mine," Will Be Pro-duced by the Degree Team of Gettys Lodge I.O.O. F., sometime this month in Xavier Hall. The team contains amateur actors of unusual ability, and their production promises to be a decided success.

The Western Maryland Railroad Has Not finally decided to build a new station at this place but is doing the next best thing—repairing the old one. A new platform is being put down and a new floor has been placed in the baggage room.

Rev. Vaughn T. Rue Will Serve as Pastor of the Methodist Churches of this place and New Oxford for another year. The many friends of Rev. Mr. Rue and family will be glad to learn that, at the close of the Central Pennsylvania Conference at Altoona, yesterday, he was again assigned to this charge.

Hon. William T. Ziegler, Agent for John B Scott, Esq., of Pittsburg, has sold the Scott property on Baltimore street to W. C. Sheely, Esq., and David M. Wolf. This house was the residence of the late Hugh Scott, division superintendent of the W. M. R. R., until his death. At one time it was used as a soldiers' orphans home.

A Story Has Reached Gettysburg That Rev. Seth Russell Downie, the popular pastor of the Presbyterian church at Hunterstown, was held up by highwaymen, Tuesday night of last week, as he was returning from an entertainment in Brua Chapel. Mr. Downie was unprotected, but he showed fight and the villians disappeared.

Little Interest Was Manifested in the Meeting of the Republican County Committee at Hotel Gettysburg last Saturday afternoon, when George F. Young was elected Chairman to succeed E. P. Sachs, who recently resigned. John D. Keith, Esq., was made Secretary of the Committee, and April 20th was selected as the date for the County Convention.

In the Presbyterian Chapel, Next Friday evening and Saturday afternoon, there will be an exhibition of Copley prints and other pictures. Ice cream and cake will be sold. Five cents admission to the exhibition will be charged and the pictures, which are copies of some of the finest paintings in the world, will be for sale.

William Jennings Bryan Will Lecture in Xav-ier Hall Saturday evening, April 11, as announced by an advertisement in this issue of the Compiler, for the benefit of Gettysburg Council, No. 1668, Royal Arcanum. Citizens of all parties have declared Mr. Bryan to be an orator of great ability and a decided treat is in store for those who will hear him one week from next Saturday.

A Curiosity of Rare Interest in the Egg Line was exhibited at Sanders' hardware store last week. It was a double shelled egg, laid by one of Samuel Meuchey's chickens. The like of it has seldom been seen in this place. The egg was unusually large, and when the outside shell was broken open another well-formed egg was found inside covered by a solid shell. The space between the shells was filled with "white."

Martin Winter's Plan to Sell Building Lots on the installment plan, which was recently well advertised in the town papers, has resulted in an unusual boom in real estate circles. Quite a number of sales of lots by Mr. Winter have already been mentioned in this paper. Last week he sold two lots on York street to Francis I. Smith, and one on the same street to Murray Smiley; one on Hanover street to Charles Riggs, and three on Carlisle and Broadway streets to John Matthews, of Philadelphia.

Among the Recent Bills Passed at Harrisburg is a Senate bill for the organization of a regiment of cavalry. This, it is generally conceded, would be a valuable addition to the National Guard, and would be very serviceable when the state troops are on strike duty. Members of the Gettysburg company of Independent Guards have expressed the hope that this may provide a way for their entrance into the National Guard. In a farming community such as this it would be an easy matter to procure horses.

Clerk-Carrier Examination.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on May 6th, 1903, an examination will be held for the position of clerk and carrier in the Post-office Service in Gettysburg. This examination offers an excellent opportunity for entering the Federal Service to bright, energetic young persons who are not afraid of hard work, and as previous examinations have failed to result in a sufficient number of eligibles, the Commission urges all persons who are qualified and who may desire to enter the Post-office Service, to apply for and take this examination. Further particulars may be found in the circular posted in the Gettysburg Post-office. Application blanks can be procured from the undersigned.

J. OLIVER BLOCHER PASSES AWAY

THE UNSEEN HAND TAKES AWAY A POPULAR AND WELL KNOWN MAN.

He Leaves a Widow and Seven Children to Mourn His Passing Away—Other Deaths in the County.

At his beautiful home on Seminary Ridge, J. Oliver Blocher, one of the best known business men in Adams county, passed into the shadows of the great beyond, at 7.30 o'clock, last Thursday evening. Bright's disease was the immediate cause, but for several years Mr. Blocher has been unwell and a complication of diseases hastened the end.

Mr. Blocher was born on the old Blocher homestead in Cumberland township, August 4th, 1849. He was the son of David Blocher, deceased. For a number of years past he was engaged in the coal and lumber business in this place. He is perhaps best known by the produce business in which he was engaged in Gettysburg for many years. He was enterprising and honest and leaves behind him many friends who admired him not only for his business ability but for his integrity which was unquestioned at all times.

The deceased is survived by a widow and seven children, Paul, of Carlisle; Ada, Madge, Flo, Marion, Ralph and Hester, living at home. His surviving sister and brothers are Miss Laura B., of this place; Charles A., Frank B., John M., of this place, and William E., of Los Angeles, Cal.

The funeral was conducted from the late residence of the deceased, Saturday afternoon, with interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Rev. John Deardorff, of the Dunkard Church, and Rev. Melanchthon Coover, of the College Lutheran Church, officiating. The bearers were Messrs. Dorsey Dougherty, Rev. Dr. E J. Wolf, Amos Eckert, Levi Diehl, Cornelius Weaver and James A. Kepner.

Mrs. Catharine Comfort.

Mrs. Catharine Comfort, one of Gettysburg's oldest and most respected women, died at her home on Baltimore street, last Saturday evening, aged 85 years, 3 months and 3 days. The funeral was held Tuesday morning, with interment at Flohr's church, where her husband, who died 34 years ago, is buried. The deceased was a daughter of the late Daniel Mickley. She is survived by five children, as follows: Mrs. Sarah Heintzelman, of this place, Mrs. Georgiana Stover, of Pine Grove; Mrs. Jacob Deardorff, of Cashtown; Mrs. Hanson Pfeffer and Max G. Comfort, of this place.

William B. Walker.

William Beard Walker was born at Graeffenburg Springs, March 19th, 1832. His parents removed to Two Taverns about 1842, where he resided until 1854, when he went West, working at his trade at various points until about 1860, when he located at Des Moines, Iowa. Here he remained until the date of his death, March 25th, 1903. He was buried at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He is survived by two brothers, H. D. Walker, of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, and A. M. Walker, of Gettysburg.

Mrs. E. B. Cope.

It was with genuine regret that the many friends of Mrs. Isabella Long Cope, wife of Colonel E. B. Cope, Engineer of the Gettysburg Battlefield Commission, learned of the death of that estimable woman Tuesday evening of last week, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Cope had been ill for some time with pneumonia and her end was caused by that disease. Her age was 68 years and 4 months.

Mrs. Cope had been a resident of this place for the past ten years since her husband came here to lay out the battlefield avenues and do similar work for the government. She is survived by her husband and six children: Miss Helen Cope, assistant principal of the Gettysburg High School, Mrs. Robert E. Wible, of this place; Mrs. Harry B. Martin, of Boyds, and William P., John B., and Mary V., living at home.

The funeral was conducted from the late residence of the deceased, Saturday afternoon, with interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Rev. D. W. Woods, of the Presbyterian Church, officiating. The bearers were Hon. S. McC. Swope, Supt. Calvin Hamilton, Hon. Theodore McAllister, Silas M. Horner, John L. Hill, Esq, and Charles Cobean.

William Shaffer.

William Shaffer, of Conewago township, died Thursday evening, March 26th, at 6 o'clock, aged 61 years, 6 months and 21 days.

Deceased was a farmer, a son of the late John Shaffer, of the same township. He was married about 36 years ago to Miss Sarah Markel, daughter of the late John Markel of near St. Bartholomew's Church, who survives him with two sons, Henry, of Mt. Pleasant, and Milton, of Hanover, and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Slagle, of Hendrix Station and Mrs. William Lippy, of Mt. Pleasant. Also by six brothers—Joseph and John, of Hanover; Edward and Albert, of Mt. Pleasant; Tempest, of Smith's Station, and George, of Fulton county, Ill., and three sisters—Mrs. Solomon Danner, of Porter's Siding; Mrs. Jesse Danner and Mrs. Daniel Danner, of Fulton county, Ill.

Mrs Margaret Crosta.

After a serious illness, covering several months, Mrs. Margaret Crosta died at her home on Baltimore street, on Tuesday morning of last week, in her 73rd year. She was born in Mountpleasant township, this county.

She is survived by seven children: Edward and Charles A., of Denver, Col.; John, of Philadelphia; Mary, living at home; Mrs. Kate Williams, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Eva C. Noel, of this place and Mrs. Charles Schleicht, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. C. P. Lackner.

As briefly noted in the Compiler, last week, Mrs. Dorothy Lackner, wife of C. P. Lackner, died at her home on Chambersburg street, Tuesday morning of last week, aged 70 years, 9 months and 6 days.

Mrs. Lackner is survived by her husband, one son, Harry C. Lackner, of this place, and one daughter, Mrs. William Anderson, of Milwaukee, Wis

On Friday afternoon, Rev. D. W. Woods, Jr., conducted the funeral from the late residence of the deceased. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

Miss Carrie E. Osborne.

Miss Carrie E. Osborne died at her home in Carlisle, Monday evening of last week, aged 25 years. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Osborne and two sisters, Laura and Miriam.

Mrs. Charles Stallsmith, of this place, was an aunt of the deceased and Harry Oyler, of this place, was a cousin. Miss Osborne had frequently visited relatives in this place.

FOR THE CAUSE OF TEMPERANCE

Rev. G. H. Vibbert Delivers Eloquent Lectures in Several of the Churches

Meetings were held in a number of the Gettysburg churches last week, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., at which eloquent addresses were delivered by Rev. G. H. Vibbert, a Massachusetts gentleman. Never has the cause of temperance and the evils of strong drink been more plainly set forth.

On Wednesday evening a union meeting was held in the Presbyterian church; on Thursday evening at St. James Lutheran church; Friday evening at the United Brethren church; Saturday evening, College Lutheran church; Sunday morning, Methodist church; Sunday evening, in Trinity Reformed church, and Monday evening in St. James Lutheran church. A collection was lifted at each meeting to help defray expenses. On Tuesday evening Mr. Vibbert delivered a lecture on "The Life of Wendell Phillips."

TWO GOOD PLAYS ARE IN STORE

GETTYSBURG AMATEURS ARE REHEARSING "NEVADA" AND "MESSMATES."

Plays Will Be Given Soon Under the Direction of Mr. Harry O. Himes—No Rivalry.

The drama to be given by the degree team of Gettys Lodge, I. O. O. F., Friday evening, April 17th, at Xavier Hall, for the benefit of the lodge, is "Nevada, or The Lost Mine." It is under the capable direction of Mr. Harry O. Himes, whose work in assisting in the production of other amateur plays in this town has been maked with great success.

Lots of laughter in this play is created by the Chinaman and the colored man, while the quiet humor of "Vermont," "Mother Merton," and the bright and happy waif of the camp all combine to make a pleasant evening's entertainment. The music incidental to the play will be attractive.

Mr. Himes also has under direction the play, "Messmates," to be given later. Mr. Himes said yesterday to a representative of this paper that although the young people who are to present "Messmates" came to him after he had decided to direct "Nevada" there is no feeling of rivalry between the players. The plays are entirely different and each will try to make the other as much of a success as possible and without any spirit to outshine or draw a comparison to a play recently given here by home talent.

The Angelus will be used for most of the music and there will also be good specialties between the acts. Both entertainments should be well patronized.

We have 40 patterns of Lace Curtains ranging in price from 35 cts. to $6 00.

"WHICH WON?"

[Original.]

Several young men were sitting around a table in the cafe of a club in New York. Some one introduced the subject of matrimony in order to start Cutler Hartsough gabbling, for being a woman hater, and, possessing a vein of dry humor, he invariably waxed entertaining on marriage. He was especially caustic on this occasion and kept the party in a roar of laughter.

The next topic was as to the time required to make a journey around the globe. This occasioned an animated discussion which led to a bet between Hartsough and Foster Conant of a box at the opera for the coming season that Hartsough would make the trip in sixty-eight days.

Hartsough left the next day at noon and, meeting with no delays, arrived at San Francisco with time to spare to reach New York before the close of the sixty-eighth day, which ended at 12 o'clock noon. So he concluded to have a good night's sleep at a hotel. After dinner he was sitting in the reading room, smoking a cigar, when a man approached him and asked if he was Mr. Hartsough. He replied that he was, whereupon he was informed that his exploit was the talk of the clubs of New York, and a New York paper had directed the man to interview him. Hartsough, much pleased, gave the desired interview, with information as to when he would reach different points on his journey eastward. Then the man departed, and Hartsough went to bed.

When the traveler reached Chicago, he had two days in which to make the distance to New York. He left Chicago on a Thursday morning and was not due at his club till Saturday noon. The time between Chicago and New York is twenty hours. In the parlor car sat a young lady dressed in a fashionable traveling costume. She sent the porter to him to ask if he was Mr. Hartsough of New York. Upon his reply that he was she sent him her card.

"Miss Enelwyn Wheawill"

Hartsough folded her, raised his hat deferentially and waited for an explanation. The girl's face broke into a delicious flush as she said:

"My aunt, Mrs. Clinton, telegraphed me that you would be on this train. Knowing that I dread traveling alone, she suggested that you might consent to take me under your charge."

"Mrs. Alexander Clinton of — Madison avenue?"

"Yes."

"I know her very well. She has placed me under an obligation in giving me so charming a traveling companion. But how did she know I was to be on this train?"

"Why, your trip is the talk of all our set. Besides, I was told there was something about it in the newspapers."

Then Hartsough remembered the man who had interviewed him.

Miss Wheawill knew of his bet, and Hartsough gallantly told her that in case he won it he would beg the honor of her acceptance of the box for the season. This offer occasioned a sudden cessation of that liveliness with which she was attracting him. However, this passed off, and the twenty hours of the journey seemed to Hartsough but so many minutes. Mrs. Alexander Clinton met them at the Grand Central station with her carriage and insisted on Hartsough driving home with them to dinner, an invitation he was only too glad to accept. After dinner he was left with Miss Wheawill, and at 11 o'clock he requested the butler to call a carriage. Mrs. Clinton insisted on his remaining in the house for the night. This he declined at first, but as the lady seemed to have set her heart upon it he finally consented, pleased to remember that he would meet Miss Wheawill at breakfast.

He had no sooner entered his room than he heard the sound of a key turned from the outside. Trying the door, he found it locked.

"Tricked!" he cried, starting.

Meanwhile a party of men at the club, who had had an intimation from one of their number that something was in the wind, had met eager for news. As the clock struck 12 Tom Bond entered and reported that Hartsough was under lock and key. A couple of baskets of champagne celebrated the event.

It was 10 o'clock the next morning when Hartsough heard a tap at his prison door.

"It's I, Mr. Hartsough."

"Miss Wheawill?"

"Yes. I am very much ashamed of the part I have taken, though it was all your fault. My cousin, Tom Bond, heard your strictures on woman and your bet. I bet him the price of a theater party that I would delay you."

"H'm! There's time for repentance. It's only 10 o'clock. I'm due at the club at 12."

"I'd lose my bet."

"I'll take care of that and keep my promise about the opera box."

"Tom will never forgive me."

"I will."

"That's very nice of you."

The door was unlocked and the prisoner spent an hour in the drawing room with his jailer.

At 11:55, as the gentlemen at the club were waiting for the stroke of 12 to further celebrate, in walked Hartsough. There was blank astonishment on every face.

"How did you get out?" asked Bond.

"By bribery. The lady who trapped me will have the use of the box I have won."

"Yes, and she'll have you, too," said Bond with heat. "The hinux not only bet me she would delay you, but that she'd make you propose to her."

Hartsough flamed to the roots of his hair.

"By thunder! She's won that bet already." F. A. MITCHEL.

Tricks of Paris Cabmen.

Paris is full of counterfeit coins, and the cabmen make use of them quite ingeniously. You take a two franc fiacre ride, and when you reach your hotel you in the generosity of your heart give the cabman 3 francs.

You have just got within the vestibule when you notice the cabman has followed you.

He apologizes, but the coin you have given him is bad. You look at it. Yes, it is bad. It is nothing but a bit of lead.

You are pretty certain in your mind that it isn't the coin you gave the man —which in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred it isn't—but you don't care to haggle in a hotel corridor and be subjected to the ignominious glances of other folks as a foreigner who gives poor French cab drivers bad money. So you take the bit of lead and give a good coin.

Of course the cabman has changed the coin. You gave him a perfectly good three franc piece at the start, which he has in his pocket, and he has bluffed you into giving him another 3 francs in exchange for a useless bit of lead. To visitors to Paris let this be a warning.

A Boon to Humanity.

Mr. Thomas J. Coughlan of Lakeland, N. Y. in a letter takes occasion to say: "I have derived great benefit from the use of Baxter's Mandrake Bitters when suffering from indigestion and loss of appetite. I can also heartily recommend the bitters as a blood purifier. It certainly is a boon to humanity."

Baxter's Mandrake Bitters has accomplished wonders for suffering humanity. It has rescued thousands of despairing victims of disease. Sold everywhere in liquid or tablets at 25 cents. L. M. Buehler.

THE STORY OF FATHER JOHN'S.

An Interesting Bit of History Covering Half a Century.

In 1848, Rev. Father John O'Brien, a noble man, came to Lowell, Mass., to do the Master's work in St. Patrick's Parish.

In 1854, Father John, as he was fondly known to his people, was attacked with a serious cold which, developing into a stubborn cough and affliction of the lungs, caused the greatest alarm for the health of the beloved clergyman.

Medical skill seemed unable to stay the progress of the disease. Finally an Eminent Specialist was consulted, who gave Father John a prescription to cure the cold and remove the lung trouble, as well as to build up and strengthen the body. The Clergyman took the prescription to the old drug store of Carleton & Hovey, Lowell, Mass., the firm by whom Father John's Medicine is prepared. The cough soon disappeared and his people rejoiced when he declared that he had been made as well and strong as ever.

Father John recommended the medicine to his parishioners and friends, and thousands were made well and strong by taking it. In getting this prescription they always called for "Father John's Medicine," and so it was named by the people, and advertised, all with the approval and sanction of Reverend Father O'Brien, because he knew of its merit and desired that all who were ailing might benefit by its power to cure.

This old-fashioned wholesome remedy is un-equaled as a body builder and tonic. It restores health and strength to all run down systems. Its gentle laxative effect strengthens the stomach and corrects the digestion. It drives out all impurities. It is a food medicine and contains only pure nourishment. It is not a patent medicine, and it is free from opium, morphine or poisonous drugs in any form which are found in the majority of patent preparations.

While it is not a "cough syrup" or "balsam" nothing equals this prescription for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and all throat and lung troubles. It has a most soothing and healing effect, and at the same time builds up the body and makes strength.

We have permission to refer to the Sisters Superior at the following Homes and Hospitals where Father John's Medicine is in use: Sisters of Charity, St. John's Hospital, Lowell, Mass., Notre Dame de Lourdes Hospital, Manchester, N. H.; Sisters of Mercy St. Patrick's Orphanage, Manchester, N. H.; and many others, the names of which we shall be pleased to furnish upon application. When you ask your Druggist for Father John's Medicine, remember that the $1 bottles contain three times the quantity of the 50-cent size.

Father John's Medicine Cures Colds and All Throat and Lung Troubles. Prevents Pneumonia.

Shot-Gun Prescriptions

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "shot-gun prescriptions" which were formerly somewhat in vogue.

The idea of the shot-gun prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell over our own name and guarantee does the same. This medicine is called Vinol. It is the best thing we know for a run-down condition, for nerve troubles, for lung troubles, for weak women, pale children, and old people—in fact, it is a safe, pleasant, reliable tonic and reconstructor.

It is not a scattering "shot-gun prescription," but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we'll give you your money back without a word of complaint.

We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed in ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.

There was severe pain in the loins, accompanied with irregularities of the secretions. They were highly colored and contained sediment. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Matthews Bros.' drug store, and they entirely relieved the pain and regulated the secretions. I believe Doan's Kidney Pills are fully up to representation, and I will reply to any one questioning this statement and endorsing stamps, corroborating it in every detail."

Mischter Druder!—Do hab ich terzlich gelese, daß juscht ebaut einer aus hunnert Mensche wißt, wie recht zu schnaufe, un es war dann angetse, wie mer schnaufe sot. Des hot mich awer emol gelächert un ich hab gedenkt, daß ich nau schun mehy as wie finfzig Johr alt worre bin, ohne zu wisse, wie zu schnaufe, un mißt sell in meine alte Dage noch lerne. Ich hab awer net im Sinn, nochemol ebbes Neies anzufange, un wann ich's nochemol finfzig Johr stände kann, dann is mir sell ziemlich lang genug. Eh, wann ich wot all die Rubls waffche, was feller Kerl angetse hot, dann wißt ich all mei Gedankte zusammenemme zuscht for zu schnaufe. Verleicht versteh ich's net besser, awer so weit as ich gesehne hab, lernt en jedes Geschepf nun seltwert des Schnaufe, so g'schwind as es gebore is; wer's net lernt, der werd net emol en Verleifstund alt. Un wann mer emol älter werd un dichtig schaffe muß, dann schnauft mer ah dichtig. Geh mir weg mit so gelehrt Kram. Do glaab ich emol net dran. Mei Großmamy hot als gesaht: „Je gelehrter, asde verkehrter," un ich glaab ah, daß se recht war.

Ich seh ah in die Zeitinge geadvertaist, daß des un sell Mehl oder anner Stofft des beseht Ding wär for Babies afzuziege. Des is noch meiner Mehsche grad so en Humbug. Wann en Bauer will en gesund kräftig Kalb ufziege, dann loßt er's bei d'r Kuh. Milch loßt er's halwe, net Schlamp. Sellemeg war's frieher ah mit em Ufziege nun Bäbies. Uem Land is es allerweil noch so, un ich bin ah d'r Meening, daß die Natur sell so eingericht hot. Wer gegich die Natur handelt, der beliegt un betriegt sich selwert.

Die Stabtleit drinke Postums-Kaffee un esse Schrebbeb Wiet, Grehpnuts, Fors un wie all des Stofft heeßt, as wunnerbarlich gesund sei soll un stark mache soll. Bischuhr, d'r Apottet Bänz lus sept, wer schwach is, der eßt Kraut. Awer for die Leit usem Land is sell kee Kescht, selle wisse ebbes halwe, as ab zu die Nippe steckt. Fors gebt ihne net genug Kraft.

Do kummt mir grad en schee Stick in d'r Sinn, was ich terzlich gelese hab. En Mann hot en Sägmill gehat un er hot net gewißt, was er mit dem viele Sägmehl mache soll. Ebber hot ihm gesaht, er sot es juscht in Quartbore pacle un en Läbel mit eme fänzy Name drufbabble, dann kennt er's net juscht los werre, sundern ah en guter Preis derfor kriege. Ich hab noch net geheert eb er seller Advteis genumme hot, awer ich glaab beidschaits, daß sell net so en dumme Sibie wär. Heitiges dags is alles meglich.

Es iverre allerweil ah so viele Mage angewe, wie mer sei Kerper dreßne un die Mussels start mache soll. Do soit mer im Haus en Eintichling halwe wie ime Zirkus, wo mer dran üffe kann. Mer sot en Sandsack uffsinge un en alle Dag en bar Stund lang mit die Fäust pusche, oder en Maschin uf d'r Bode stelle, wo mer sich drufbode un mit die Aerm schaffe kann, as wann mer ime Ruderboot usem Wasser fahre dät, un hunnerterlee so Kram. Awer dun nätschter Ernst, wo mer ah d'r Kerper mit Start mache kann, werd nix gesaht. Viele Leit dhut eme bei d'r Erwet d'r Buckel weh. Awer wann se Pingpong spiele un sich hunnertmol bicke müsse, dann dhut sell net weh. Dort kenne se en halwe Nacht ausßatte, Es is geprubt, daß die Baure die gesundste Leit sen un je schaffe doch schuhe hart. Es gehe awer ab zeitig in's Bett un ruhe sich aus—enihsen so dhune noch unsere alte Pennsylvania Deitsche. Wie d'r alt Hebel segt:

Se brauche zum Schlofe ah se Bieb,
Se werre dann Schaffe schwert mied.

Es is verleicht en scheene Sach, wann mer nix zu schaffe braucht oder juscht schaffe kann, was mer will, awer ich glaab net, daß sell gesund is. Ich hab mir sage losse, daß d'r reich Rockefeller ausgefunne hot, daß d'r Mensch schaffe muß for gesund zu sei, un drum dät er allzweil mit Schaufel un Hacke graawe, Holz säge un so bergleiche, weil er meeß, daß sell des beseht Patentmittel is. Des dät dann prubse, daß ehrliche Gretsel viel besser Gerseis is, as wie all des Frankfänts. Des Fors lenze is en fees Ding. Sell hen schun die erschte Mensche im Parodies ausgefunne un es is ihne gesaht worre: Im Schweeß Deines Angesichts sol Du Dei Brod verdiene.

Es gebt Leit, was den alte beitsche Spruch: Eriet macht des Leve long, so ungeännert hen: Faulheet fürht zu Gfiecher. Doberfor is eve Amerika frei Land. D'r Hansjörg.

ONE STEP MORE

Will be fatal to the sleep-walker. Will he draw back or will he take the final, fatal step? A great many people are in peril like the sleep-walker. They are diseased. The disease is progressing day by day. The time comes when one more step away from health is fatal. The man who has suffered from indigestion or gastric trouble goes some night to a dinner and returns home to find he has taken that last step from health which can never be taken back.

To neglect the cure of indigestion or some other form of stomach trouble is dangerous. It is also inexcusable. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood, stimulates the liver, cures biliousness, and eliminates bilious poisons from the system.

"The praise I would like to give your Golden Medical Discovery I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes Jas. B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1255 ½ Mifflin St., Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you and you advised me to use Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

If you ask your dealer for "Golden Medical Discovery" because you have confidence in its cures, do not allow yourself to be switched off to a medicine claimed to be "just as good," but which you did not ask for and of which you know nothing.
